CONNECTING PEOPLE WITH JESUS
THROUGH FILM.

JESUS

Watch Jesus walk among the people of his day as described in the Gospel of Luke. Available in more than 1,100 languages, the JESUS film speaks to people in more than 200 countries in the languages they understand.

Story of Jesus for Children

Children enter the story in this dramatized adaptation of JESUS. Whole families come to Christ as the story unfolds. Available in 149 languages. www.jesusforchildren.org.

Magdalena: Through Her Eyes

Mary Magdalene shares Jesus' love and compassion for women in this adaptation of JESUS. Released internationally in 2007 under the title of Magdalena: Released From Shame, this film is available in more than 90 languages. For inspiring stories and other helpful resources, visit www.MagdalenaToday.com.

Jesus Film Media

Our new digital platform will enable the majority of The JESUS Film Project's films and language translations to be available on the Internet for easy search and free downloading to laptops, smart phones and other mobile devices. www.jesusfilmmedia.org.

"...the 'JESUS' film is instantaneous, visual, and verbal. The moment the people see it and hear it, they can understand it."

CREATING STORIES THAT CHANGE LIVES.

Global Short Film Network

Modern parables that connect with people's own stories are used to begin gospel conversations. International trainings equip leaders to share the stories that best resonate within their cultures. View 50 of these short films at: www.GlobalShortFilmNetwork.com.

My Last Day

My Last Day is a short anime film of salvation that tells the story of repentance of one of the criminals on the cross. Because the dialogue comes from the original JESUS film, it is easily available in more than 1,100 languages. www.mylastdaymovie.com.

Walking With Jesus Africa

This five-part discipleship series, filmed in and for Africa, portrays a chief and his people as they learn about following Jesus. Kenya hosted the exciting premiere in February 2012. Currently available in English. French coming soon.

Mission 865

Many languages in the world with 50,000 or more primary speakers do not yet have JESUS. Partnering with other mission agencies, these strategic translations will be completed and will prayerfully ignite spiritual movements in difficult areas of the globe. Website coming soon.

Strategic Global Partnerships

There are hundreds of partners currently using our films as tools to help them accomplish their ministry goals throughout the world. The JESUS film has been one of the most effective church-planting tools in the history of Christian missions.

Mission Trips

Looking for an adventure with a purpose? Volunteers give up to two weeks with JESUS Film Mission Trips taking JESUS to unreached people groups of the world or with International School Project where educators lead conferences to train international teachers in Christian curriculums. www.JesusFilmMissionTrips.org
