

CLARK UPDATE JAN 2008

CHRISTMAS STORIES

Dear Friend,

We hope you had a wonderful Christmas and start to your new year. Here are a couple ways that we experienced God's blessings through this season!

FAMILY VISITING

After a full year, it was really good to see Andy, our college junior, 6' 8" oldest son again. It was his first visit to our new home location (though we don't have a house to call home yet). Rochelle's mom also came for 3 weeks over the holidays, so we had a full apartment. For Andy, though, it means the end of his ability to go "home", meaning, to Japan. We were so glad to enjoy him and mom and then sad to see them go again. Andy's driving now, too, and working as a tour guide to foreign English studies student groups.

CHRISTMAS CD

For the last 4 years in Japan I produced evangelistic

Christmas CDs. Now I am really encouraged that the staff in Japan have continued the work, with this year's Real Christmas CD going out to 230,000 Japanese through our staff, students, project workers and church partners in Japan.

Overseas volunteers in Tokyo for CD work.

Teams from Singapore, Hong Kong and the US came to give them to people in Tokyo. Missionaries on winter holidays gave them out at resorts. Churches and ministries used them in their outreaches.

Kazu, my former boss, used them to invite people to an evangelistic meeting where he spoke and 4 people came to know the Lord! 10 people indicated decisions online through the related website! A lady saw the Jesus film on the CD and invited Christ into her life. She bought a Jesus video to give to her friends! One lady rededicated her life to God and returned to church after looking at the contents of the Christmas CD.

Our family over Christmas break

2007 Christmas CD

I hope that in whatever new role I take with CCC I can contribute in ways that help staff impact people like that!

YEAR END GIFTS

We are so thankful for the great response to our year end gift request. Please pray with us as we seek a home here in Orlando to keep serving with Campus Crusade.

Sign up for email prayer updates!
Email stcinjapan@aol.com to join.